

ENOS

WAS A DISCIPLE OF CHRIST

As Enos hunted beasts in the forest, his “soul hungered” (Enos 1:4). He felt a deep spiritual need, so he prayed all day and night. Then he received an answer that gave him peace, forgiveness, and strength. It came “because of [his] faith in Christ” (Enos 1:8). It also gave him confidence before the Lord and filled his heart with love for others, even his enemies. I can pray with faith like Enos.
