

The Gospel of Jesus Christ: A Higher Law

During the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus Christ taught a higher law than what had been given in the law of Moses. This higher law teaches how to become more like Heavenly Father and Jesus Christ.

Select one of the following passages. Carefully study the passage and accompanying material from Scripture Helps: New Testament for “Matthew 5; Luke 6.” As part of your study, address the following questions:

- How would you summarize in your own words the higher law the Savior was teaching?
- How can living this teaching help us become more like our Heavenly Father?
- When have you seen someone live this part of the higher law? What did you learn from their example?

Anger (Matthew 5:21–26)

Lust and Adultery (Matthew 5:27–28)

Oaths and Integrity (Matthew 5:33–37)

Revenge and Retribution (Matthew 5:38–42)

Love for Our Enemies (Matthew 5:43–47)

The Gospel of Jesus Christ: A Higher Law

During the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus Christ taught a higher law than what had been given in the law of Moses. This higher law teaches how to become more like Heavenly Father and Jesus Christ.

Select one of the following passages. Carefully study the passage and accompanying material from Scripture Helps: New Testament for “Matthew 5; Luke 6.” As part of your study, address the following questions:

- How would you summarize in your own words the higher law the Savior was teaching?
- How can living this teaching help us become more like our Heavenly Father?
- When have you seen someone live this part of the higher law? What did you learn from their example?

Anger (Matthew 5:21–26)

Lust and Adultery (Matthew 5:27–28)

Oaths and Integrity (Matthew 5:33–37)

Revenge and Retribution (Matthew 5:38–42)

Love for Our Enemies (Matthew 5:43–47)