The Friendship Bracelets

I miss Laura. I hate when friends move away.

Me too. This feels worse than all the times we had to move away.

You can still call her! Or write letters.

I guess so.

It's sad when friends go. But we can be thankful for how their friendship has blessed us.

Remember when Laura gave us these friendship bracelets for our birthday?

Yeah! And she wrote us those nice notes too.

She sounds like a good friend.

She is! She's always kind, like Jesus. I want to be a good friend too.

Hey, maybe we can send Laura friendship bracelets in the mail.

Let's give some to Lucas and Julia too!
