

DEAR PARENTS,

Your children will remember your family's traditions for many years. Think about what you want them to remember and what activities you can do. The holidays are a perfect time to make new traditions that help them feel close to the Savior and each other! You can use the story on page 10 to get started.

Merry Christmas!

READING TIP

Act out a story that you read with your children. You could act out the Christmas story with the activities in this issue.
