

Lesson Preparation Ideas

Which option did you choose to focus on?

Consider using some of the following prompts to help you prepare your outline.

Key phrases from verses you might suggest those you teach could mark:

What these verses could help those you teach to understand or feel about Heavenly Father and Jesus Christ:

How this truth could impact the lives of those you teach:

Object lessons, or good examples of people living this truth:

Questions you might ask to help those you teach to ponder what Alma taught:

Experiences you have had with what Alma taught:

Additional scriptures or statements from Church leaders:

What you might invite those you teach to do because of what they learned:
