

The Situation the 2,000 Stripling Warriors Faced

To learn about a scary and difficult situation the sons of Helaman faced, read the following verses and match them to the correct summary statements.

_____ 1. Alma 56:30–33

_____ 2. Alma 56:34–38

_____ 3. Alma 56:39–42

_____ 4. Alma 56:43–44

a. Antipus ordered Helaman and his 2,000 warriors to pass by Antiparah in an attempt to draw the Lamanites out of the city.

b. After three days, the 2,000 warriors could no longer see the Lamanites behind them. They did not know if Antipus's army had caught up to the Lamanites or if the Lamanites were trying to lure them into a trap. Helaman asked his young soldiers if they were willing to go to battle.

c. When the Lamanites left the city to attack the 2,000 warriors, Antipus's army followed the Lamanites.

d. Instead of turning to fight Antipus, the Lamanites sped up, hoping to slay Helaman's army before Antipus could attack from behind.
