As a leader, have you ever had questions like these?

When I meet with someone who is in need, what should I do or say?

How do I decide whom to help, with what, and how much?

How do I help address common emotional health challenges?

How long should I provide Church assistance?

How do I help someone develop a self-reliance plan?

What is the process for providing Church assistance?

How do I balance providing relief and building self-reliance?
