

Coloring in Christmas Chaos

Here's your bonus way to feel peace this Christmastime. Color this page! Believe it or not, coloring might help you relieve some stress. Think of the Savior while you do it, and that can help even more.

"There is nothing more important we can do this Christmas than to rivet our focus on the Savior and on the gift of what His life really means to each of us."

President Russell M. Nelson, "Divine Gifts" (First Presidency Christmas devotional, Dec. 6, 2020), broadcasts.ChurchofJesusChrist.org.

FUN STOP

WHERE IN THE WORLD DO THEY ...

Around the world, people celebrate the Savior's birth in many different ways. Match the Christmas tradition with the part of the world it originates from.

1. Warm up in a sauna
2. Break open piñatas
3. Eat fried chicken
4. Decorate Christmas trees with spider webs
5. Eat mince pies
6. Hang star-shaped lanterns called "parols"
7. Eat dinner when the first star appears in the sky
8. Roller-skate to Mass (religious services) on Christmas
9. Exchange books
10. Dance in a large parade with "fanals" (bamboo lanterns)
11. Display a giant straw goat
12. Light candles on the evening of December 7 (a traditional holiday)
