

We Can Change the World

President Nelson said that what we do and say really matters! In the spaces below, write what you could say to help bring peace.

What can you say to someone who is sad?

What can you say when someone takes your things?

What can you say when someone is mean to you?