Ideas to Help You Listen to and Learn from General Conference

BEFORE CONFERENCE

• Learn about the prophets and apostles. You can review their names and pictures in this notebook or learn more about their lives (and other Church leaders) on ChurchofJesusChrist.org.

• What we learn from conference can help us improve our lives and find answers to our personal questions. Write down your personal questions of what you hope to learn from conference.

• Ask Heavenly Father to help you listen and understand the messages.

DURING CONFERENCE

- Each time a new talk begins, find the speaker's picture in this notebook. If the speaker's picture isn't here, write his or her name and calling on the last page.
- Write down something you learn from the talk, or draw a picture of what the speaker talks about.
- Pay attention to feelings and thoughts you have. The Holy Ghost can teach you and help you know the messages are true.

AFTER CONFERENCE

• Write down your answers to these questions:

1. What are the main things you learned from conference?

2. What are you going to do because of what you learned?

- Share what you learned with your family and friends. For example, you could share the things you wrote or drew in this notebook in home evening.
- Ask your parents to study conference talks with you. These are available in the Gospel Library app, on ChurchofJesusChrist.org, and in the Church magazines.
