

The Importance of Repentance and Baptism

Prepare an uplifting message that can help someone better understand how repentance and baptism can transform their life for good.

Some members of your group could read Matthew 3:1–12, and the others could read Joseph Smith Translation, Matthew 3:34–36, 38–40 (Gospel Library). As you read your passage, look for insights that reveal the importance of repentance and baptism. Also consider the following:

- Use study helps—such as footnotes, dictionaries, the Define feature in Gospel Library, or the Guide to the Scriptures—to deepen your understanding of words and phrases such as repentance, baptism, fruits meet for repentance, and baptism of fire.
- Use the search function in Gospel Library or the Scripture Citation Index to find recent teachings from Church leaders about repentance and baptism.
- As you prepare your message, be sure to include how repentance and baptism, including the baptism of fire, can draw us closer to the Savior.
