How Rafael Follows Jesus

Rafael loves his great-grandma Mimi. She often visits his family at their home. Rafael's family lives on the second floor, and Mimi is blind. So when Mimi visits, Rafael always helps her walk up the stairs.

"I feel happy when I help Mimi because then she knows that I love her very much," Rafael says.

At church, Rafael likes to share hymnbooks with visitors so they can sing along. "Jesus Christ smiles when I do something good," says Rafael. ●
