

Every Time I Read

Words and Music by Katherine Wright

Freely ♩ = 72-80

1. In the ear - ly light of
(2. As the) ev - er press-ing

1st time both hands 8va
2nd time as written (loco)

both hands 8va

mp

with pedal

mp-mf

6

morn - ing, when the world is hushed and still, Then I con - tem-plate the new day and I hou - rs seem to rush me through the day, When I strug - gle through af - flic - tion, or I yearn to know God's will. Where would He have me go to day? What would He have me fear I've lost my way, How can I know I'm not a lone? How shall I know He rit.

11

a tempo

16

be? I o - pen up the scrip - tures so He can speak to me.
cares? I read the hol - y scrip - tures and feel His pres - ence

1.

1.
Both hands as written (loco)

rit.

a tempo

21

2.As the there. I

a tempo

26

read and I stu - dy, I pon - der and pray, I search for the mes - sage

f

32

meant for me to - day, Then soft - ly the Spir-it speaks the an-sw-ers that I need. My

rit. mp rit.

2nd time
to Coda

38

fears are stilled; my soul is filled Eve-ry time I read.

rit. a tempo

3. When an - oth - er day is o - ver, and there's fin - ally time to breathe, I re - call God's ten - der

rit. p molto rubato

50

mer - cies and all that He has done for me. My life al - read - y ov - er flows with bless - ings from a - bove, Yet

rit. mf a tempo

57

D.S. al Coda

when I read the scrip - tures, I am en - cir - cled in His love. I

rit. accel. e cresc.

63 Coda

Eve - ry time I read.

rit. dim. e rit. al fine