

What Is in Preach My Gospel?

Imagine the leaders of your ward wanted to help the youth begin studying from Preach My Gospel. They heard that you were in a missionary preparation class, and they have invited you to prepare a three-minute overview to share with the youth.

Prepare this overview by recording your answers to the following questions and completing the following activity.

Highlight statements from Preach My Gospel that help answer these questions.

- What is Preach My Gospel? (see “First Presidency Message” [Preach My Gospel, v]; “Introduction to Preach My Gospel” [Preach My Gospel, vii–ix]).

- How can studying Preach My Gospel help you and others come closer to Heavenly Father and Jesus Christ? (see “Use of Preach My Gospel by Church Members” Preach My Gospel, ix).

Take a tour of Preach My Gospel by doing the following:

- Find “Introduction to Preach My Gospel,” and look over the bullet points that describe how Preach My Gospel is organized (see page vii).
- Explore chapter 3 to discover what missionaries teach. Read the first five paragraphs (on page 25), and then quickly look through the four lessons in the rest of the chapter.
- Choose one of the following chapters to explore: 1, 2, 4, 5, or 6. Read the chapter’s bolded headings.
- Based on what you found in Preach My Gospel, what do you feel is most beneficial to share in your overview?
